

They probably get from dollars a day and their it would seem that it is me for these inspectors ad the state of Wisconsin in Ford coupes alone
magnificent highways, te must pay the cost of ship of these poor overvants of the people.

er's premises needed
pection in order to proublic why couldn't one late he-man have done
kind of work at one visit his report to the various Madison? There can be that the inspection re-have been just as satis-
t, the political results ine machine would have about one twentieth of calculated to be."

mpert on Rack
y placed Florian Lam-ponent, on the rack and Lampert to take a
support of a candidate ent, declaring that the
an had absolutely sides question, although his sympathy with the La eeler lineup. The voted time to the La atform, particularly rethe proposal for change stitution to permit con-override the supreme red by Mr. Reilly to be vicious and dangerous ffecting liberties of the r advanced.

y is to spend part of the
and is booked at St.
night and will speak at
and Mishicot.

grocers have DANISH LK. If yours hasn't,

operation last summer in a final effort to regain his health but the hope proved futile. The funeral will be held at Mishicot Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with service at St. Peter's Lutheran church, the Rev. Zell officiating.

Founded Business In 1890

Born in Germany April 1, 1853 Mr. Holst came to America with his parents as a babe. The family took up its home in Calumet county and there he grew to manhood.
For a time he taught in the public schools and then engaged in business at New Holstein. He was married to Miss Augusta Hintz Behnke and in 1890 the family moved to Mishicot where he established the Holst Sons' Company, a general store business from which he retired in 1914 turning the business over to his sons. He remained as an advisor and took an interest in the affairs of the company, however until a year ago when failing health compelled him to give up all his active interests.

Mr. Holst is survived by his widow, two sons Arthur and Hugo all at Mishicot and by three daughters, Mrs. Elwood Fisher of Sheboygan, Mrs. A. R. Madson of Mishicot and Mrs. F. J. Sievers of Pullman, Washington.

Was A Home Man

Mr. Holst belonged to no fraternal orders, being essentially a home man and devoting all of his time outside of his business to his family.

Mr. Holst was one of the best known men of the county and his death is a shock to the community.

CARD SOCIAL

Given by St. Boniface Society at the School Hall Tuesday, Oct. 14.
Lunch served.